

David Mielke Scholarship

David Mielke Scholarship is named in honor of a correctional educator who was dedicated to life long learning. Dave was hired by DRC to work as a teacher at the Southeastern Correctional Institution. In 1994, Dave transferred to the Orient Correctional Institution as a teacher. In 1999, he became a Pre-Release Instructor at the Pickaway Correctional Institution (PCI) assisting inmates with issues that needed to be addressed before they re-enter society. In 2003, Dave switched from his involvement with Pre-Release to that of classroom teacher at PCI. He is the Correctional Education Association Teacher of the Year award recipient for 2006.

David Mielke was a lifelong learner who dedicated his professional career towards developing relationships that help and teach others. This scholarship is available to CEA members meeting the criteria listed below. The scholarship money is for a lifelong learner. It can be used for professional development in education attendance at CEA-O National or Regional Conference, an educational workshop, convention, or seminar related to teaching field.
